Conditions of Entry

Eligibility & submission process

- Artists must be resident in Western Australia.
- Entries limited to one per artist.
- City of Busselton staff involved with the exhibition or employed at ArtGeo Cultural Complex are not eligible to enter.
- Artwork must have been executed within the last 12 months and be the artist's original work. Maximum size 1.4m x 1.4m and 15kg.
- Non-refundable entry fee $33 inc GST.
- Please include a brief artist's statement and one-page CV as a Microsoft Word document format with your entry form.
- Please include a reproduction-quality digital photograph of your entry in jpg format with your entry form (minimum 300 dpi).
NB Selection is not made from photographs – they are used for publicity only.

Drop-off & delivery of artwork for selection

- Artwork being delivered via Artist's Chronicle's drop-off service must be packed with bubble wrap and cardboard, and clearly marked with artist's name and title of artwork on outside of packaging. All artwork must be labelled with artist's name and title on the back of the work.
- Entries must be presented ready for installation with suitable hanging devices (if applicable), eg D rings positioned at the top of the frame or art work (5–10cm).

Selection & judging Thursday 8 September (TBC)

- All entries will be assessed for selection for the exhibition by two contemporary art experts. They will then judge the selected artworks for the City of Busselton Art Award ($10,000 acquisitive) and the Emerging Artist Award ($2,500 non-acquisitive). Highly Commended certificates may also be awarded. The judges' decision is final and no communication is permitted without their agreement.
- The winning entry becomes the property of the City of Busselton. If the value of the prize-winning work exceeds $10,000 the artist must accept the lesser amount.

Insurance & Sales

- Artworks are covered for insurance by City of Busselton whilst on exhibition only, not during transit. NB An excess of $1000 applies.
- 34% commission will be charged by City of Busselton on all sales made during the exhibition.
